

I am a passionate event manager specialized in the field of live music and dance events. My ability to provide a team with a good atmosphere, structure and calmness have greatly helped me in past jobs and projects. I aspire to be a successful manager of a festival in the future, this is why the current work environment I am looking for is a place with more challenge in terms of leading and overseeing my own team and project.